FOREWORD

THIS, THE 1937 WO-HE-LO, IS THE TREASURE CHEST OF E.C.J.C. IT IS ESPECIALLY ENDEARED TO US BECAUSE IT IS THE FIRST IN THE HISTORY OF THIS INSTITUTION.

HEREIN IS CONTAINED AN ACCOUNT OF ALL IMPORTANT EVENTS AND PHASES OF COLLEGE LIFE DURING THE 1936-37 YEAR. ITS PURPOSE IS TO PRESERVE THIS RECORD AND TO LINK OUR FUTURE LIVES WITH OUR ALMA MATER.

PERHAPS WE HAVE EXAGGERATED IT; PERHAPS WE HAVE UNDERESTIMATED IT... THAT IS FOR YOU TO JUDGE. WE SHALL ALWAYS CHERISH IT BECAUSE OF OUR MEMORIES OF E.C.J.C. JUST AS WE HAVE HER.... AN INSTITUTION OF WORK—HEART-LOVE

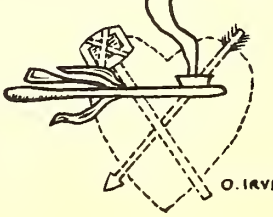
DEDICATION

BECAUSE HE HAS ENDEARED HIMSELF TO THE HEARTS OF ALL OF US WITH HIS GENTLE MANNER; BECAUSE HE HAS NEVER FAILED US IN HIS WISE AND KINDLY GUIDANCE; BECAUSE HE HAS EVER MADE HIMSELF OUR TRUEST FRIEND THROUGH HIS READY SYMPATHY AND DEEP UNDERSTANDING, AND BECAUSE HE IS THE EMBODIMENT OF ALL THAT E. C. J. C. MEANS TO US, WE THE SOPHOMORE CLASS OF 1937, AFFECTIONATELY DEDICATE THIS, THE FIRST VOLUME OF WO-HE-LO,

To

L. O. TODD



EN PASSANT

Oh--
EAST or west, or north or south--
Our feet may wander far;
Still there's a name we'll not forget,
No matter where we are.
(Aye, many a greybeard laddie
And many an aged lass
Will think, with fond remembrance,
Of their E. C. J. C. class).

Yes,
CENTRAL in each gallery
Of memory there'll be
This tapestry of college days,
In colors gay and free.
(Tho time may dim the pattern,
Life's loom weave greater themes,
We'll cherish this wherein we wove
Youth's faith and hope--and dreams).

For,
JUNIOR college tho you be,
Your Warriors have no peers;
And many a whoop of victory
Will echo down the years.
(And noted folk perchance will smile,
Amid important cares,
As some old tune recalls the days
With that old gang of theirs).

So,
COLLEGE years, tho swift you go,
Leave us your heritage
Of priceless gifts to serve us well
From youth to hoary age.
(For fame and wealth may both depart,
And time our friendships sever,
But treasures stored in mind and heart
Are ours to keep forever).

East Central Junior College will soon be expanded through a building program which was begun February 11, 1937, involving expenditure of approximately $100,000 in new buildings, improvements of the old buildings, and equipment.

With the completion of this building program, available classroom, laboratory, and library space will be more than doubled. The amount of instructional equipment will be more than doubled as a result of this program.

The Carnegie Foundation has promised aid to the library by the beginning of the 1937-1938 session.

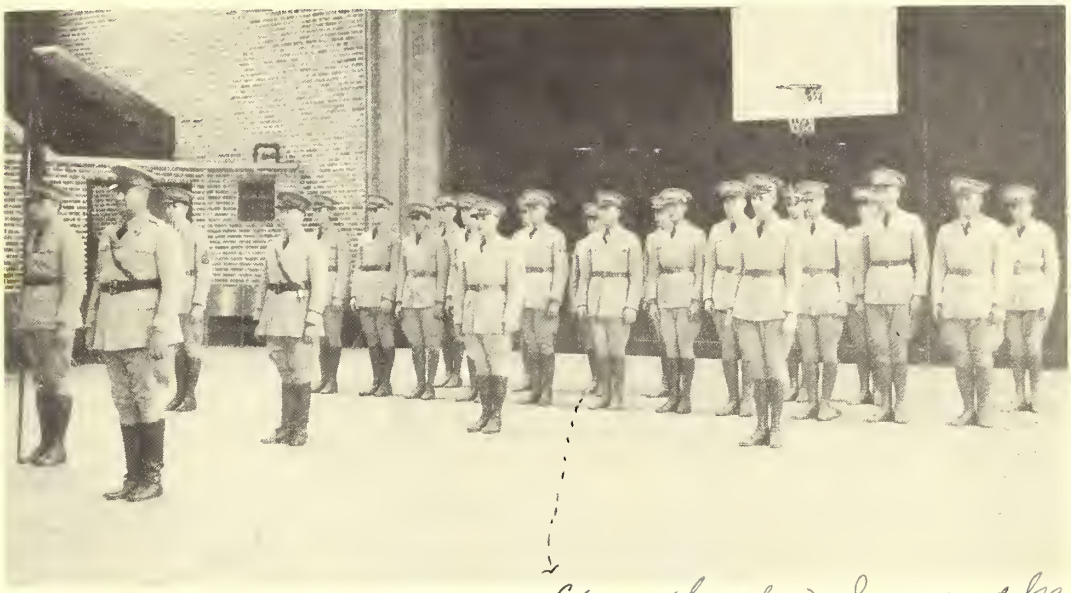
Under the direction of James Mosely, the E.C.J.C. Band completed a most successful year. Our director was ably assisted by Jim Hendrick, manager of the clarinet section. The ability displayed by our band both at home and away was a compliment to our school and a representation of the high ideals of our campus activities.



Elon, though I have not known you but a short while, I have learned to like you very much. I am wishing you the very best of luck and success.

Young men of today will be the merchants of tomorrow. The better trained men will be the leaders in tomorrow's field of merchandising.

The opportunities for success will be just as numerous as ever for the young man of ambition and integrity who is not afraid of work.

After twenty-five years of continuous and successful operation as Wholesale Grocers, we are happy to find among the large number of our customers, sons, sons-in-law and grandsons of merchants who were our customers twenty and twenty-five years ago.

Doubtless boys of the class of '37 E.C.J.C. will some day be engaged in merchandising. If they are, we want them to be our customers.

Like a National hook up,

value speaks from all parts of the store.

It's in athletic goods..the suits and the shirts...the topcoats and the ties. It's over in the sport clothes and up in the hat cases...and the minute you open the Alex Loeb door, it springs forth like lights in a theatre.

These values of ours should be your reason for looking. What we show you in style will be your reason for buying.

We know...and so does every one of our customers...that it's only a matter of getting you in the store...
